

FEATURE

'My, oh my, what a wonderful day' for graduation

St. Charles Borromeo School kindergartners Paige Zorij, right, and Jonathan Cyganik regale parents with a rendition of "Zip-a-dee-doo-dah" during kindergarten graduation ceremonies June 12.

Casey Tarana, right, accepts her diploma from Father Elmer Heindl during the kindergarten graduation. Twenty-four students from the morning and afternoon classes received diplomas.

Teacher Pam Anschutz's kindergartners adjust their caps in the school prior to procession to St. Charles Borromeo Church for the graduation ceremony.

PHOTOS
BY GREG FRANCIS

Students hold on to their caps as they contend with breezy conditions while processing from the school to the church for the graduation.