Keeping cool

Elon Mankin-Katz, 10, right, with sister Zara, 14, cool off at the Waterwall in the Women's Rights National Historical Park July 16 in Seneca Falls. They came from San Francisco for Celebrate '98, marking the 150th anniversary of the women's rights convention. Zara is a member of WOWER (Writers of Women's Equality Rights) Power, a performance troupe that presented an interpretation of the first women's rights convention during the weeklong commemoration. The Waterwall is engraved with the wording of the Declaration of Sentiments, drafted during the 1848 convention.
