

OUR BROTHERS AND SISTERS IN NORTH KOREA NEED OUR HELP. RIGHT NOW

North Korea is facing an economic collapse and, along with it, a devastating food shortage. For the third consecutive year, crops are massively short of what is required. Millions of people urgently need the nourishment necessary to sustain life. Hardest hit are the countless children whose growth has been stunted due to lack of food - children orphaned because their mothers have either died or become too weakened by the country's food shortage to care for them.

As Catholics, we cannot stand by. Catholic Relief Services is helping, but much more is needed. The North Koreans are our brothers and sisters, and our immediate efforts can make a profound difference. To give, please call 1-800-285-6367.
