Where Jesus walked

At left, a boy rests near the Church of the Holy Sepulchre July 31 in Israel. Above, merchants sell clothing, shoes, food, drink, souvenirs, pottery, religious mementos and other merchandise in Jerusalem's Old City section. Members of the Interfaith Leadership Mission, led by Bishop Matthew H. Clark and Rabbi Alan Katz, visited the Old City during their sojourn to Israel July 30-Aug. 9. It is said that Jesus carried his cross through part of the Old City, along Via Dolorosa, "The Way of Sorrows." Holy Sepulchre, Christianity's most holy site, marks where he was crucified and buried.
