CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK, 1999

Dear Friends

Our Catholic Schools take great pleasure in the annual celebration of their existence, and of your support of them. It is because of you that their students are successful and move into their careers with confidence and values.

How do we do it?

- We have a rigorous curriculum. As a result, 95% of our graduates go on to further their education.
- We teach self-discipline with a Christ-centered focus. We teach students to accept responsibility for their actions and to respect others. We instill in them a sense of the presence of Christ in themselves and others.
- We have high expectations. This atmosphere is all inclusive, encouraging students to give each project the best they have.
- Our parents are committed. Parents are the primary educators of their children in time, importance, effect, commitment, and many other ways. The school works with them for the good of their children.
- Our teachers and principals are dedicated. Next to our students themselves, our teachers and principals are our most valued assets. Long hours, modest paychecks, and a commitment to share their own faith sets these people apart and makes them special.

Obviously, we have much to be proud of, and much to celebrate! Happy Catholic Schools Week!

Sincerely,

Anthony M. Deegan
Superintendent of Schools
