Parish festival just ducky ... or dunky

The 50th festival at St. Mary's Church of Waterloo made a splash with parishioners and others July 29-31. A fundraiser for St. Mary's School, the event featured food and games, and pony rides for children. Above, from left, Lindsay and Rachel Johnson spend time at the Duck Pond. Left, Chuck Nightingale, a fourth-grade teacher at La Fayette School, stays cool in the Royal Flush dunking booth. An estimate for this year was not available, but last year's festival raised about $50,000.
