St. Stanislaus fest a pierogi paradise

Above, St. Stanislaus Church Polish Festival volunteer and head chef Ludwika Kardela stacks pierogis to be boiled and sold to festival-goers Aug. 7 at the Rochester parish. She organized the pierogi production, which began in May with 15 volunteers meeting three days a week to make about 11,000 pierogies for the Aug 6-7 festival. Proceeds from the 26th annual Polish Festival will be used to fund parish needs. At left, Jolietta Mirando, 4, tours the festival atop the shoulders of her grandfather Terry Duran. Jolietta's great-grandfather Joseph Cornish is a parishioner of the church.
