A rededication

The Pastoral Center building, originally dedicated as St. Andrew's Preparatory Seminary Nov. 30, 1950, was rededicated Nov. 21. Three time capsules were placed behind the original cornerstone, which was relocated during the repair and construction of a new entrance and ramp. One was the original that Bishop James Kearney installed on the feast of St. Andrew, Nov. 30, 1949; another contained personal items of the diocese's bishops; and a third was from diocesan youth. (Above) Bishop Matthew H. Clark says a blessing; from left are Eric Patchke, Sister Anne Guerin, SSJ, Father Tim Brown and Joan Workmaster. (Below) the capsule containing bishops' personal items includes newly added cuff links from Bishop James Kearney, a silver cigarette case belonging to Bishop Joseph Hogan, and a leather notebook belonging to Archbishop Fulton Sheen.
