

This Easter, follow the footsteps of The Pope on his historic visit to Israel.

Pope John Paul II's visit to Israel the Holy Land was a journey of peace, reconciliation and joy.

His visit not only gladdened the hearts of Christians and Jews – it sent a message of deep meaning to all the world's people.

What better time than now – what more meaningful occasion than Easter – to heed The Pope's message, and to follow in his footsteps?

We the people of Israel now hope that many of our Catholic friends will plan to visit the Holy Land this Easter. We can assure you of a safe and joyful journey as you re-live the stories of the Bible, and visit the holy places that Pope John Paul visited – Jerusalem's Church of the Holy Sepulcher, Mount Zion, Via Dolorosa, the Mount of Olives, the Garden of Gethsemane, Nazareth, the Western Wall, the Sea of Galilee, and so many more.
