Veterans' screening

The Department of Veterans Affairs co-sponsored a hepatitis C and diabetes screening for military veterans Sept. 11 at Kodak's Theater on the Ridge in Rochester. (Above) Louise Turner, a lab technologist from the VA Medical Center in Canandaigua, takes blood from Benjamin Kaplow, 76, of Rochester. Kaplow served in an Army infantry division during World War II. Turner is a parishioner of St. Dominic's in Shortsville. Sam Baubie of Greece (at left) fills out paperwork at the screening. Baubie, a Kodak employee, served in the military from 1964-1967, including a year in Vietnam. Veterans may be at higher risk for hepatitis C because of contact with blood.
