'Beauty of Black Culture in the Church'

The Roman Catholic Community of the 19th Ward will sponsor a celebration, "Taste and See the Beauty of Black Culture in the Church," Saturday, Nov. 3. The church consists of St. Monica, St. Augustine and Our Lady of Good Counsel parishes. St. Monica elementary school is a co-sponsor.

The celebration begins with a 2 p.m. Mass at St. Monica's, 831 Genesee St., Rochester, which will feature song and dance of the African culture and honor contributions of African and black saints. A "Soul Food" fried chicken dinner will be offered at the school immediately after Mass. The school is next door to the church. The dinner will cost $5 for adults and $4 for children.

The service will be sign interpreted.
