

CALENDAR

Bishop Matthew H. Clark celebrates Mass. (Back, from left) Father John Colacino, CPPS, of St. Bernard's Institute, and Father John Mulligan, pastor of Sacred Heart, concelebrate. At Bishop Clark's right is Deacon David Palma, director of deacon personnel.

Calling forth the candidates

Bishop Matthew H. Clark presided over the institution of 14 lectors and acolytes at Sacred Heart Cathedral Jan. 13. The institution of these rites is a step to the permanent diaconate. Each candidate was called forth, prayed for by the assembly and then formally instituted in the ministry.

John Crego of St. Theodore's Parish, Gates, was instituted as acolyte.

James Nail of St. Mary of the Lake Parish in Ontario is instituted as acolyte by Bishop Clark. Sister of Mercy Mary Ann Binsack, administrative assistant to the bishop, served as master of ceremonies.
