

on the MARCH

Members of the Diocesan Youth Committee perform an opening skit.

Youths rally in Seneca Falls

After Mass, Bishop Matthew H. Clark greets Kim Fraser, 13, of St. Lawrence School in Greece.

Tom Hayden (left) and P.J. Giacona of St. Mary's in Auburn make "God's eyes" during parish activity time.

Kim and Reggie Harris perform during their keynote presentation.

The Diocesan Youth Committee leads participants in a game of Simon Says.

Junior-high students from throughout the Diocese of Rochester gathered at the New York Chiropractic College in Seneca Falls March 9 for the annual Junior High Youth Rally. Nearly 400 sixth-, seventh- and eighth-graders participated in the event, which featured games, skits, music and worship, and keynote presentations by Bishop Matthew H. Clark as well as Kim and Reggie Harris. This year's theme was "Hope for the Journey" and was designed to help young people reflect on how they are called to live out and celebrate their faith as Catholic teens today.

PHOTOS BY JAMES STEIN