Children create paper cranes for peace

Karin von Voigtlander/Catholic Courier

Religious-education students at St. Ambrose Church in Irondequoit created more than 1,000 paper cranes, which hung in the church's sanctuary during September in honor of peace. The cranes will be sent to Hiroshima, Japan, where they will hang on a statue in the Hiroshima Peace Park dedicated to children who were killed when the United States dropped an atomic bomb on the city during World War II.
