

Cottage Offering Plan Accepted

The State of New York recently accepted the offering plan submission that will eventually lead to an official certificate of authority adding cottage homes to the Cherry Ridge residential campus. So, if you're looking for the latest in retirement living which incorporates everything you love about your current way of life, but without the worries of homeownership, you owe it to yourself to discover The Cottages at Cherry Ridge.

These spacious cottage homes will combine the charm and appeal of Webster and the surrounding areas with the assurance of a maintenance-free lifestyle. Your private residence, located on the Cherry Ridge campus, will offer a vibrant lifestyle complete with peace of mind from on-site assisted living and memory support, and priority access to skilled nursing, if ever needed, by St. Ann's Community, the area's leading senior health care provider.

During the next few months while the State continues to review the offering plan and before official acceptance is received, we can continue to provide the public with information on this exciting new residence option.

You can be one of the first to discover The Cottages at Cherry Ridge by joining our no-obligation Friends List. As a Friend of Cherry Ridge, you'll receive all the details on this ideal senior living lifestyle option as soon as we receive our official certificate of authority from the State of New York.
