Kids learn the art of sculpting

Students at St. Agnes School in Avon gained some hands-on sculpting experience in January as part of the school's Fine Arts & Cultural Enrichment program. Local artist Colin Coats visited the school to help the students create a life-size fox-hunting scene. Above, kindergartner Anna Warner looks at the colorful splatters of paint on her hands Jan. 27 after she helped paint the sculpture. At right are the paints the students used.
