

Parish in Rochester and attended its school. He also attended St. Andrew's and St. Bernard's seminaries in Rochester. On June 6, 1953, he was ordained at Rochester's Sacred Heart Cathedral by Bishop James E. Kearney.

Father Eisemann served as assistant pastor at the following churches: Mt. Carmel in Rochester from 1953-54; St. Alphonsus in Auburn from 1954-58; St. Ann's in Hornell from 1961-65; Ss. Peter and Paul in Rochester from 1965-67; and Our Mother of Sorrows in Rochester from 1967-74.

From 1958-61, he served as procurator at St. Bernard's Seminary in Rochester, and from 1974-90 he was pastor at Holy Family in Rochester.

Msgr. Gerard C. Krieg retired from his pastorate at St. Stephen's in Geneva in 1999.

Msgr. Krieg grew up in St. Michael's Parish in Rochester and attended its school. He completed studies at St. Andrew's and St. Bernard's seminaries in Rochester as well as the School of Canon Law at Catholic University in Washington, D.C. He was ordained on June 6, 1953, by Bishop James E. Kearney, and was named a papal chamberlain in 1966.

He served as assistant pastor at St. Joseph's in Wayland from 1953-57 and Our Lady of Perpetual Help in Rochester from 1957-58. He completed graduate studies at Catholic University from 1958-60, and from 1960-61 served as associate pastor at St. Pius Tenth in Chili while also serving as defender of the bond for the diocesan tribunal. From 1961-66 he was secretary of the tribunal, and from 1966-73 he was its judicial vicar. In 1973, he became pastor of St. Mary of the Assumption in Scottsville, where he served until 1983. From 1983-99, he was pastor at St. Stephen's in Geneva.

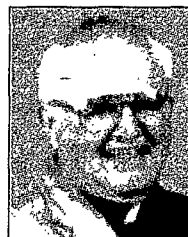

In his retirement, Msgr. Krieg serves as assisting priest at St. Louis in Pittsford.

Father Paul R. Schnacky retired from his pastorate at St. Joseph's in Wayland in 1998.

He grew up in St. Boniface Parish in Rochester, attending its school as well as Aquinas Institute, St. Andrew's Seminary and St. Bernard's Seminary, all in Rochester. Father Schnacky was ordained by Bishop James E. Kearney on July 6, 1953, at Rochester's Sacred Heart Cathedral.

Father Schnacky served as assistant pastor at the following churches: St. Michael's in Rochester from 1953-57; St. Alphonsus in Auburn from 1957-58; Holy Family in Auburn from 1958-60; Ss. Peter and Paul in Rochester from 1960-64; St. Salome's in Irondequoit from 1964-65; and Holy Redeemer in Rochester from 1965-75. He was also pastor at St. Patrick's in Cato, St. Thomas in Red Creek and St. Jude in Fair Haven from 1975-76, and associate pastor at St. Philip Neri from 1976-79. He was named pastor of St. Joseph's in 1979.

Father Robert G. Smith retired from his pastorate at St. Mary Magdalen in Wolcott and St. Thomas the Apostle in Red Creek in 1993 and from his chaplaincy at Butler Correctional Facility in Red Creek in 1998.

Father Smith grew up in St. Monica's Parish in Rochester and attended St. Andrew's and St. Bernard's seminaries, also in Rochester. He was ordained by Bishop James E. Kearney on June 6, 1953.

He was assistant pastor at St. Mary's in Auburn from 1953-56 and St. Francis deSales in Geneva from 1956-60; professor of sacred music at St. Bernard's Seminary from 1960-67 and St. Andrew's Seminary from 1960-62; assistant pastor at St. John the Evangelist in Spencerport from 1967-68; Newman chaplain at Cornell University in Ithaca from 1968-69; assistant pastor at St. Louis in Pittsford from 1969-71; pastor at St. Janarius in Naples and St. Mathias in Atlanta from 1971-78; pastor at St. Margaret Mary in Rochester from 1978-84; pastor at St. Mary Magdalen in Wolcott from 1984-93; and pastor at St. Thomas the Apostle in Red Creek from 1985-93. He became senior chaplain at Butler in 1989.

Father Smith has served as president of the Naples School Board; director and vice president of the West Ontario United Way; regional coordinator of the Yates-Ontario-Wayne Region; president of the Wolcott Rotary; chaplain of the Irondequoit police department; and as a Wayne County American Red Cross board member.

55 YEARS

Father Dominic Mockevicius, who retired in 1995, grew up in St. George's Parish in Rochester and attended St. Andrew's and St. Bernard's seminaries.

He was ordained on June 4, 1948,

by Bishop James E. Kearney at Sacred Heart Cathedral.

Father Mockevicius served as assistant pastor at the following parishes: St. Boniface in Rochester from 1948-50; St. George in Rochester from 1950-56; Our Lady of Mt. Carmel from 1956-58; and Holy Family in Rochester from 1958-61.

He was named administrator of St. Patrick in Cato and St. Thomas the Apostle in Red Creek in February 1961, and in June of that year was appointed temporary assistant pastor at St. Alphonsus in Auburn. He was assistant pastor at St. Mary's in Canandaigua from 1961-62; chaplain at Craig State School in Sonyea from 1962-83; and pastor of St. Vincent de Paul in Churchville from 1983-94. In 1994, he became co-administrator of St. George's with his brother, Father Charles Mockevicius, who died in 2002.

60 YEARS

Father L. John Hedges retired from his pastorate at St. Helen's in Gates in 1988.

He grew up in St. Ann's Parish in Hornell and attended its school.

He also completed studies at St.

Andrew's and St. Bernard's seminaries in Rochester.

Father Hedges was ordained on June 5, 1943, by Bishop James E. Kearney at Rochester's Sacred Heart Cathedral. He served as assistant pastor at the following parishes: Immaculate Conception in Ithaca from 1943-48; Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary in Brockport from 1948-51; and Old St. Mary in Rochester from 1951-63.

Father Hedges served as chaplain of the University of Rochester's Newman Club from 1961-68; pastor of St. Charles Borromeo in Rochester from 1968-72; diocesan consultor from 1972-1977; and pastor of St. Helen's in Gates from 1978-88.

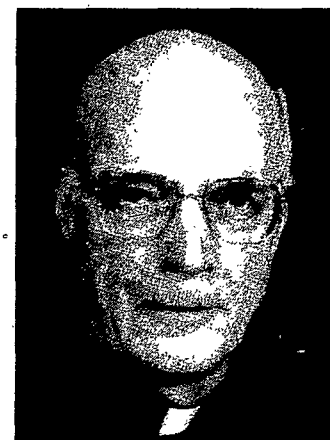

Father Andrew Kalafsky retired from his pastorate at St. Mary of the Lake in Watkins Glen and St. Benedict Church in Odessa in 1989.

Father Kalafsky grew up in St. Francis deSales Parish in Lodi, N.J. He attended Seton Hall University in South Orange, N.J., and Catholic University in Washington, D.C. After his ordination at St. Patrick Cathedral in Newark, N.J., on June 19, 1943, he served the Newark Archdiocese un-

Continued on next page

Congratulations

MSGR. GERARD C. KRIEG on your

Golden Jubilee

from ST. LOUIS CHURCH
PITTSFORD, NY