Landmark status denied again

By Ruth Callahan/Catholic Courier

printable version

As Yogi Berra might say, it was déjà vu all over again early in the morning of June 24, as the Rochester City Planning Commission for a second time voted to deny landmark status to Sacred Heart Cathedral. The vote followed a heated hearing and deliberations that lasted four hours.

In separate votes, commission members voted 4-3 against landmark status for the exterior and interior of the cathedral.

Landmark designation would have required a 6-1 supermajority vote, which is needed when landmark status is opposed by a building's owner — in this case, the Diocese of Rochester.

The vote was welcomed by diocesan leaders, including Father Joseph A. Hart, one of the diocese's parish pastors, who noted at the hearing that the diocese would
