Radio rosary show is back
By Mike Latona/Catholic Courier

Accompanied by some revisions, the long-running Family Rosary for Peace has returned to early-evening radio after a two-week hiatus.

The show went back on the air July 16 on Rochester's WHIC 1460-AM, formerly Christian-format WWWW. It is being broadcast four evenings per week with an air time of 7 p.m., slightly later than its former slot of 6:30. Although tapes of the late Msgr. Joseph Cirincione's program have continued airing seven days per week on two other Rochester stations — 9:30 p.m. on WLGZ 990-AM and 5 a.m. on WDCZ 102.7-FM — followers of the show apparently felt a void in the early evening, where Family Rosary for Peace has run continuously since its inception in 1950.

"A lot of listeners had called and contacted us, saying 'I miss Msgr. Cirincione.' We certainly took those comments into serious consideration," said William Purcell, general manager of Buffalo's Holy Family Communications, which acquired WHIC on July 1. "Catholic devotions are important to us, and obviously a tradition with
