FOUNDED AND DIRECTED BY CATHOLIC LAY PEOPLE

USCCB rates recent movies

NEW YORK (CNS) — The following are capsule reviews of movies recently reviewed by the Office for Film & Broadcasting of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops.

'CATCH THAT KID'

Cleverly conceived but morally misguided kiddie caper about a 12-year-old girl (Kristen Stewart) and her two best friends, rival suitors (Max Thieriot and Corbin Bleu) who decide to break into a high-security bank in order to steal enough money to pay for her dad's costly, life-saving surgery. Despite a smart script and a fresh-faced cast that gives the flick's shopworn heist plot a youthful twist, director Bart Freundlich uses an end-justifies-the-means attitude to rationalize his improbable premise. The USCCB classification is A-II — adults and adolescents. The Motion Picture Association of America rating is PG — parental guidance suggested.

'MIRACLE'

Inspirational crowd-pleaser which tells the real-life story of the U.S. Olympic hockey team's against-all-odds victory over their much-vaunted Russian rivals at the 1980 Winter Games in Lake Placid, N.Y., and the coach (Kurt Russell) whose uncompromisingly winning attitude helped lift the sagging patriotism of a nation and give it something to believe in. Minimal mildly crude language and some rough sports action. The USCCB classification is A-II — adults and adolescents. The MPAA rating is PG — parental guidance suggested.

'YOU GOT SERVED'

Slight hip-hop musical that follows a dancing crew led by two friends (Omari Grandberry and Marques Houston) who must put aside their recent feuding to triumph at the biggest dance competition of the year. A few crude dance moves, minor drug content, brief violence and some crass words. The USCCB classification is A-II — adults and adolescents. The MPAA rating is PG-13 — parents are strongly cautioned. Some material may be inappropriate for children under 13.
