

A second interfaith conversation about this controversial film

Sponsored by St. Bernard's, Temple B'rith Kodesh and the Catholic Courier

Thursday, March 11, 7:00 - 8:30 p.m.

Burgundy Basin Inn,
1361 Marsh Road, Pittsford

Panelists: Father Joseph Brennan, former adjunct professor of religious studies, University of Rochester; Deacon Thomas Driscoll, director of community education, St. Bernard's School of Theology and Ministry; Jack Garner, film critic, Democrat and Chronicle; Rabbi Alison B. Kobey, associate rabbi and director of lifelong Jewish learning, Temple B'rith Kodesh; Rabbi Laurence A. Kotok, senior rabbi, Temple B'rith Kodesh; Rev. Richard Myers, pastor, Immanuel Baptist Church, and president, Greater Rochester Community of Churches.

To pre-register: E-mail tdriscoll@stbernards.edu or call 585-271-3657 ext. 292 (24-hour voice mail).

Suggested donation: $5.00 at the door. Donations will be used to support Jewish-Christian lifelong learning through the Rochester Kollel and St. Bernard's.

Coming up in the Catholic Courier

- St. Matthew Parish of Livonia and Conesus will open its new church March 15.
- Diocesan youths create artwork for the construction site at Sacred Heart Cathedral.

DIOC

In

Living
will c
Merge
is 'bit

Bishc
for tr
Endor
U.S. C

Naza
win b
Six pr
Final

Teen
show
Wants
crosse

Lyons
for vc
Says sl
the lov

0 17