

Let faith take priority in your life this fall

Unlock

... deeper knowledge of yourself and keys to more meaningful prayer and more fruitful concentration and contemplation. Learn about interpreting your dreams and unconscious desires, and come to a deeper understanding of the roots of evil in C.G. Jung: Depth Psychology and Spirituality with Dr. Steve Bentley on Monday evenings beginning August 30.

Learn

... the history of Christian prayer and the wisdom of the great masters of prayer throughout history. Discover the Holy Spirit's activity in your daily life, loves and yearnings. Dip into modern forms of prayer and the experience of the Risen Christ in Christian Spirituality: Traditions and Issues with Damian Zynda, Tuesday evenings beginning September 7.

Wonder

... about God's action in your life. Ponder why God allows evil to happen, or why suffering dominates the lives of so many people in the world. Consider what it means to say, "I want to do God's will", in The Problem of God with Dr. Nancy Hawkins, IHM, on Wednesday evenings, beginning September 1. (This course also will be presented via videocast in Watkins Glen.)

Adventure

... through the Christian Gospels, which many consider the greatest books ever written. If we only walk this way once, wouldn't it make sense to take a comprehensive, graduate-level course on what many consider a source of wisdom greater than all other forms of human understanding? Join us for Father George Heyman's Gospels of Matthew, Mark and Luke on Tuesday evenings beginning September 7.

Explore

... the tension of being a good Catholic and a good American at the same time. Question ways in which Catholic values seem to be challenged by American individualism and independence. Consider whether certain aspects of American culture should influence the church more in American Catholicism with Dr. Nancy Hawkins, IHM, on Monday evenings beginning August 30.

Discover

... the basis for the church's moral teachings in Contemporary Moral Theology with Father Paul Varuvel from Buffalo's Christ the King Seminary on Saturday mornings beginning October 30.

In addition to these classes, St. Bernard's offers a host of other courses dealing with Scripture, liturgy, counseling, and the theology of the Church.
